Biography:

I was born 1957 in Pusan, South Korea.

I learned Chinese painting and calligraphy with my father who was a Chinese doctor.

Graduated from the National Taiwan Art University in 1985 majoring in ink painting.

Graduated from Kong Ju Teachers University in 1987 majoring in art education.

Graduated from Kyoto City Art University master course in 1991 majoring in Japanese painting.

Studied history of Song painting at Kyoto University 1991 to 1993.

Began teaching ink painting and Chinese calligraphy in Kyoto, Kobe, Osaka.

Currently teaching at Tso Kei Art University in Kyoto and at Mainichi Culture center in Osaka, etc.

In 1996, in New York I met Master C.C. Wang at Christie's and had the chance to visit his studio in Manhattan where he showed me his famous collection of Chinese ink painting masterpieces and offered me many of his opinions about art, especially about ink painting. He loved my abstract pieces and my horse ink paintings. This has been a very important moment in my life.

This year, I am working on my art in the peaceful city of Kyoto. I can learn many things visiting its old temples. My overseas students have arranged exhibitions for me in Japan and in Europe where I have had over 30 shows.
